The following amendment is made to the rental agreement. The existing Notice section is deleted and replaced with the following:

NOTICES: All notices required under the Rental Agreement or State law to be in writing shall be served personally, by first class mail or by first class mail and attachment. If served by first class mail and attachment, a notice from the Owner/Agent to the Resident shall be deemed served on the day and at the time it is both mailed by first class mail to the Resident at the premises and attached in a secure manner to the main entrance of that portion of the premises of which the Resident has possession. If served by first class mail and attachment, a notice from the Resident to the Owner/Agent shall be deemed served on the day it is both mailed by first class mail to the Owner/Agent at the address set forth on this Agreement and attached in a secure manner to the main entrance of the complex office, if one exists, and if not, to the Owner/Agent's location identified on the front of this Agreement. If the main entrance to the complex office is located inside a building, the notice should be attached to the main entrance of such building. Owner/Agent is authorized to accept notices on behalf of the owner of the premises.
